FIRST HOLY COMMUNION AND RITE OF INITIATION

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION - The Mass for children receiving First Holy Communion will be held on Saturday, June 27th at 10:00 am. Parents, please keep an eye out for more emails with details on when we will be able to meet with the children before this blessed day!

RITE OF INITIATION - The Mass for the Rite of Initiation for adults will be held at the 5:00 pm Mass on Saturday, June 27th.

PARISH FESTIVAL - The Parish Festival for 2020 has been cancelled this year.

300 CLUB - The 300 Club for 2020-2021 is still going on. The first drawing will be held on Friday, July 31. It is not certain if there will be a final drawing party. Tickets are still available!

Sign-Up for the Digital Catholic Witness - The Catholic Witness transitioned to a weekly digital edition in May, reporting news and features that reach Catholics instantly. The digital format features a weekly e-newsletter with stories, photos and videos, as well as a designed PDF that can be printed and shared. The digital service is free to all subscribers. Sign up today at www.hbgdiocese.org/the-catholic-witness-newspaper/catholic-witness-signup and join us as we continue to share in the Church's mission to tell the Good News of Jesus Christ in the context of today's world.

HOLY TRINITY CHURCH GUIDELINES

YELLOW PHASE

1. If you have concerns about your health or your vulnerability to infection, please stay home. Mass will continue to be live-streamed and recorded. Communion will be available in the church for a half hour after the Saturday 5:00 pm and Sunday 10:30 am Mass has concluded, if you would like to come after participating in the Mass remotely.
2. Everyone must wear masks (unless excused for medical necessity) at all times, except for receiving communion. Please charitably assume that anyone not wearing a mask is doing so out of proper necessity.
3. Confessions will be offered in the church, near the St. Joseph altar, using a collapsible set-up, at the usual time (3:30-4:30 pm Saturdays). Please keep your mask on.
4. Every other pew is roped off. Please do not move the ropes.
5. Please do not socialize within the building before or after Mass.
6. Please keep social distance in the pews, in procession to receive communion, and at all other times. People who live together do not need to keep social distance from one another.
7. There will not be a collection taken. There will be a place to donate your offering near each of the doors. Thank you for your continued generosity.
8. Communion will be distributed from the center aisle only, after the end of Mass. Please keep six feet apart, in a single line, and divide when reaching the front pew. Proceed across the front and exit the church. Please spend some time sitting in your vehicle or on your walk home contemplating the mystery of Christ truly present in the Eucharist, and within you.
9. During the yellow phase, we will not be using altar servers or extraordinary ministers, nor distributing the Precious Blood, or sharing the Sign of Peace.

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one, all died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.”

It is easy for us to point out the cause of our restless world. Sin, death, war, hate all flow from the fall as recorded in Genesis. At that time, God made His promise to us. That promise was carried out in the person of Jesus Christ.

Paul tells us of the greatest of gifts, God’s grace, bringing His life to us, and renewed as we celebrate the Sacraments. What is grace? It is the life of Jesus Christ, our God, communicated to us, as a gift. That’s God’s part. Our role is to accept that gift, hungering for His life in us. As I recall this great teaching, may I ask for the grace to overflow in my heart. Today I want to reach out and accept that gift in my heart.
